 - 56 days and over: retention of deposit

Company cancellation

Please note; a minimum number of bookings are required for the holiday to take place. In the event of under-subscription and subsequent cancellation by Icon Adventures, all monies will be refunded (or credited against another booking). In this case, notice of cancellation will be given 4 weeks/28 days prior to the holiday.

Safety and Security

Egypt is a military state and as such Icon Adventures regularly monitors information from - and abides by - the advice from the UK Foreign & Commonwealth Office regarding safety and travel to the stated destination. If you have any concerns, please visit: www.fco.gov.uk/travel.

On behalf of the above named;

I agree and accept the booking terms and conditions (see below) which form part of this contract. I acknowledge that payment in full is required (four weeks - or upon booking if late availability) before departure.

I undertake all activities connected with the holiday entirely at my own risk.

Terms & conditions (please retain for your reference)

1. Your Holiday is between the Company and the client, being any person travelling or intending to travel on a tour operated by the Company.

2. To secure a booking the Company requires a completed booking form and the necessary deposit. (Full payment required if booking 28 days or less before start of holiday.) Clients booking by telephone, on the website or by e-mail will be deemed to have signed the Declaration on the booking form and agreed to the following conditions: a) they have read and accepted our Booking Conditions and general information pages, contained on our website. b) they have informed Icon Adventures of any major physical or any emotional illness within the past 5 years or of any medical or psychiatric supervision. Where appropriate, they have enclosed a doctor's certificate of fitness to travel. c) A booking is accepted and becomes definite only from the date when the Company sends a confirmation invoice. It is at this point that a contract between the Company and the client comes into existence.

3. The balance of all monies due, including any surcharges applicable at that time, must be paid to the Company not later than 28 days before departure. In the case of non-payment of the balance by the due date the Company reserves the right to cancel your booking and cancellation charges will apply.

4. Should the client wish to cancel, cancellation charges will be imposed. These are calculated from the day written notification is received by the Company as a percentage of the total tour price, including surcharges, as shown below:

14 - 0 days before departure – no refund possible

27 - 14 days before departure: 10 % refund

41 - 28 days before departure: 40 % refund

55 - 42 days before departure: 70% refund

56 days and over: retention of deposit.

5. Should the client have a complaint, the client must tell both the supplier and/or the Company's representative at the time. It is only if the Company and the relevant supplier know about problems that there will be the opportunity to put things right. Failure to complain on the spot will result in the client's ability to claim compensation from the Company being extinguished or reduced. It should be noted that Icon Adventure is acting only to book the holiday on your behalf with the Owner of the facilities/hotels booked. We will always do our best to help resolve any justifiable complaints, however it is the client's responsibility to take up the complaint with the Owner on the client's return to the U.K. Icon Adventure acts purely and solely as booking agents between, and on behalf of, both parties.

6. Clients are responsible for arranging, and must be in possession of, a valid passport and any visas and vaccination certificates required for the whole of their journey.

7. Travel Insurance is mandatory for all clients whilst on a tour organised by the Company. Clients together with their personal property including baggage are at all times solely at their own risk. Clients are wholly responsible for ensuring that they are in possession of private Travel Insurance with protection for the full duration of the tour in respect of at least medical expenses, injury, death, repatriation, cancellation and curtailment, with adequate cover. Clients should ensure that there are no exclusion clauses limiting protection for the type of activities included in the tour. Clients will be deemed to have read the relevant information in our literature and on the website regarding travel insurance.

8. Clients agree to accept the authority and decisions of the Company's employees, tour leaders and agents whilst on tour with the Company. If in the opinion of such persons the health, level of fitness or conduct of a client at any time before or after departure appears likely to endanger the safe, comfortable or happy progress of a tour the client may be excluded from all or part of the tour without refund or recompense. In the case of ill health the Company may make such arrangements as it sees fit and recover the costs thereof from the client. If you are affected by a condition, medical or otherwise, that might affect you or affect other people's enjoyment or active participation of the tour, you must advise us at the time of booking. No refund will be given for any unused services.

9. The Company reserves the right to cancel a tour in any circumstances but will not cancel a tour less than 4 weeks before departure except for force majeure, consolidation or the client's failure to pay the final balance. Unless the client fails to pay the final balance, the Company, upon cancellation, will return all monies paid not including visa, vaccination or associated costs. The Company also reserves the right to change itineraries or substitute hotels to those in published itineraries should unforeseen logistical or environmental considerations occur.
